STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

In recent years the unsatisfactory working and management of a number of private secondary schools in the Union territory of Delhi have been subjected to a great deal of adverse criticism. These have been mainly in respect of (i) violations of executive instructions regarding timely payment of salaries to teachers, (ii) failure to create a Reserve Fund, (iii) recruitment of teachers with lower than the prescribed qualifications, (iv) unauthorised borrowing of money from the Pupils' Fund by the managements of schools, and (v) collecting compulsory donations to meet the managements' share of the maintenance expenditure of the schools.

2. At present the Delhi Administration have no legal power to compel the managements of private schools to abide by the rules and regulations governing the terms and conditions of service of teachers, the payment of salaries of the employees regularly, the maintenance of the quality of education in the institutions or to ensure their financial stability. Although there are several private schools running smoothly and efficiently, occasions do arise when drastic action is called for. The Administration can, of course, stop or suspend the payment of grant to the school in question; but recourse to such measures adversely affects the interests of the teachers and also of the pupils. It has, therefore, become necessary for the Government to have the necessary statutory authority to require the school managements to run the schools in conformity with the prescribed conditions for ensuring improved quality of instruction and the present Bill is designed to achieve this purpose.

3. The main features of the Bill are:—

(a) provision for grant of recognition to a school on fulfilment of the conditions laid down in this behalf;

(b) provision for the framing of a scheme of management for every recognized school and the constitution of Managing Committee thereunder;

(c) provision for payment, stoppage or suspension of grant to a school and for making the salaries and allowances of teachers and other employees of a school the first charge on such grant;

(d) provision regarding the conditions of service of teachers of aided schools and for the disbursement of their salaries;

(e) provision regarding taking over of managements of aided schools for a period not exceeding five years if it is deemed to be expedient in public interest to do so and in that event making the School Fund available to the Administrator for being spent on the school;

(f) provision regarding the setting up of an Advisory Committee to assist the Director of Education;

(g) provision for exemption of certain schools from the purview of this Act on certain grounds such as, character, location, financial resources, etc., of the schools concerned.

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM

Clause 9 of the Bill provides for the payment to recognized schools of grants subject to prescribed conditions. The grant may be of recurring or non-recurring character. The aided schools are given grants on recurring basis in respect of salaries and allowances of employees, including the employers' contribution towards the Contributory Provident Fund, contingent expenditure on account of stationery, repairs and renewal of furniture, telephones, etc., rent for the buildings hired for the schools and depreciation of the school and hostel buildings owned by the institutions. The schools are also paid non-recurring grant towards expenditure on the purchase or construction of buildings for schools and for purchase of approved items of equipment, furniture, science material, library books, etc. For both the recurring and non-recurring grants, a percentage of ceiling is prescribed. These grants will continue to be paid according to these rates, subject of course to such revisions as may be decided upon from time to time. The quantum of the grant depends on factors like the number of schools, students, and employees, and is likely to vary from year to year. The provision made for this purpose during the current year's budget is Rs. 136.87 lakhs recurring and Rs. 4 lakhs non-recurring. The expenditure will be met from the Consolidated Fund of India after due appropriation made by Parliament by law in this behalf.

2. Clause 17 requires that every recognized school shall be inspected at least once in each financial year. At present the inspection of aided schools is carried out by the inspection staff of the Directorate of Education, Delhi and no separate inspection staff has been employed exclusively for the non-Government schools. After the passage of this Bill, the Director will have to ensure that the provisions of the Act are complied with and if for that purpose he finds it necessary to employ more staff, he will take necessary action with the approval of the Central Government. At this stage, it is difficult to determine the complement of additional staff that may be required or the exact amount of additional expenditure likely to be involved.
